Re: JANE GIBSON or JESSIE L.
EASTON, at TRENTON NJ

Mr. Watson advised me that a man named Hopkins, a bartender in Tenneson's saloon in New Brunswick, N.J. might have some information relative to Jane Gibson at Trenton, N.J., and suggested that I see him.

I find that the man is Edward W. Hopkins and that he is employed at Peter Tenneson's saloon, corner of Easton Avenue and Bristol street, New Brunswick. Hopkins stated that he had formerly resided at Trenton; that he had heard that Mrs. Gibson or Easton had formerly resided on South Broad street; that he did not know her personally and could give us no information concerning her activities at that place.

Respectfully submitted:
